

Save Money – Only Purchase Remedy Licenses if you Really Need Them

RRR|License is a license monitoring and optimization tool that tells you:

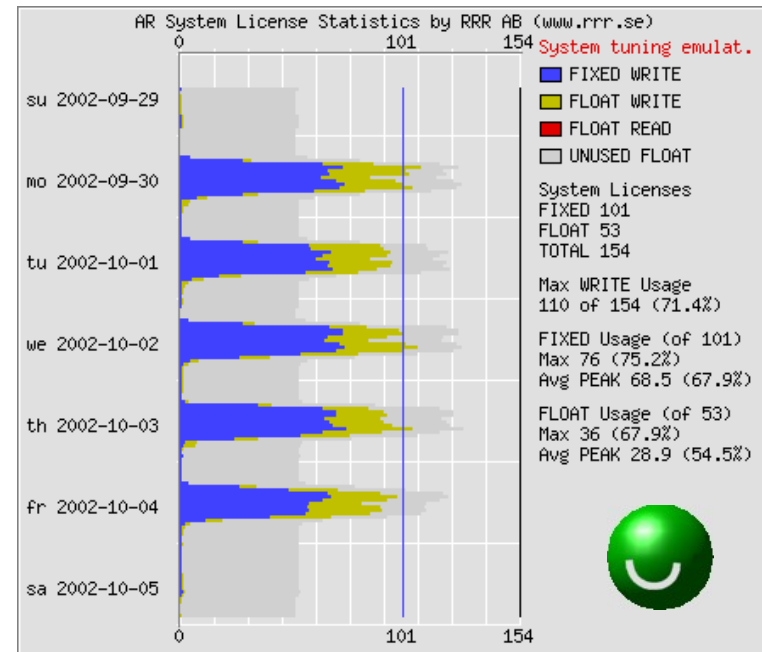

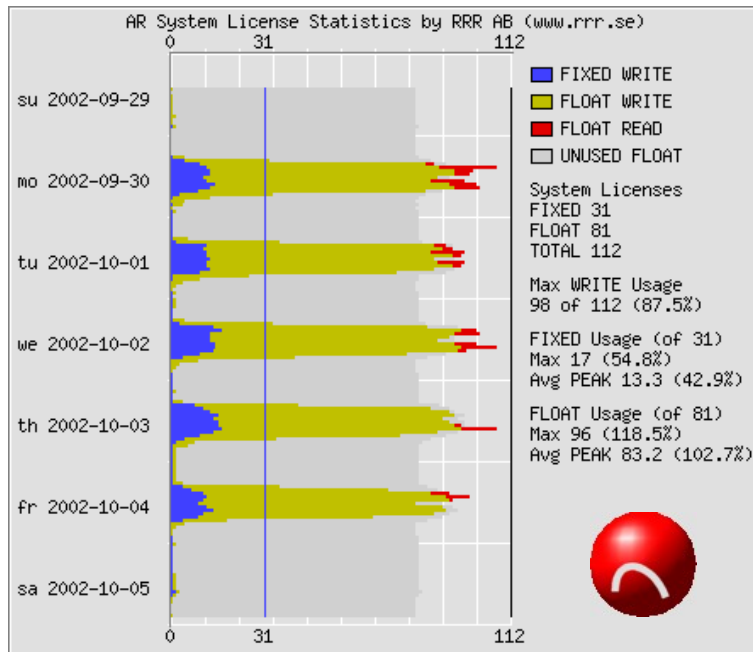

- What is the best mix between fixed and floating licenses
- Which user should have a fixed and which user should have a floating license
- How close to the license limit you are
- The most cost-efficient amount of licenses to buy if you expand Remedy usage

Thinking of buying Remedy licenses?
You may not need to!
